Alerts about new online journals and books, training classes, and other new services and resources.

- Register me for Document Ordering through PubMed
Applicants must be authorized for NIH Library services.

There are two steps to register for Loansome Doc service:

1. You must complete this form to obtain a library identifier (LIBID).
The NIH Library will send you your LIBID within two business days of receiving this form along with instructions for completing step 2.
2. Complete the Loansome Doc registration form available in PubMed.
You will need the LIBID to complete your registration and create your own userid and password.

WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT COMPLIANCE

The Copyright Law of the United States (Title 17, United States code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted materials. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not going to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use" that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violations of the copyright law.
